Overview

Americas Red Hat Tech Exchange is Red Hat's premier internal learning and enablement conference. It is a technology-focused event packed with collaboration, hands-on technical enablement, and celebration.

For the first time ever, we are opening this event to select partners! Red Hat Tech Exchange is a global event and this is the 3rd annual Americas Red Hat Tech Exchange.

America's Red Hat Tech Exchange Welcomes Partners

Americas Red Hat Tech Exchange is a 4-day event geared to help you better architect, demonstrate, and deploy Red Hat solutions. Attendees can expect to:

- Join Red Hat technologists, engineers, specialists, and consultants from across North and Latin America
- Share, express, and learn new ideas and strategies, as we continue to strengthen our partnerships
- Hear from Red Hat leaders about the future of Red Hat
- Engage directly with Red Hat product and engineering teams as they share the latest about our portfolio
- Attend Red Hat product roadmaps sessions led by leaders from our product and engineering teams
- Get hands-on experience with Red Hat products and solutions through unique labs build specifically for Red Hat Tech Exchange
- Learn alongside Red Hat delivery experts in hack-a-thons and hands-on workshops

Attendees can expect breakout sessions around (but not limited to) the following topics:

- Deep dives into Red Hat Insights
- Reducing cyberattacks using Ansible
- Red Hat Serverless Strategy
- Quarkus in-depth
- Knative development
- Decrease integration timelines using Red Hat managed integration
- Running on OpenShift 4 on OpenStack
- Container internals with podman and CRI-O
- Hands-on with RHEL 8

Red Hat Certification

Americas Red Hat Tech Exchange will offer a limited selection of certification exams to all attendees throughout the week. Attendees will be able to sign up and take a certification exam while at Red Hat Tech Exchange free of charge. These exams are offered on a first come, first serve basis, with 25% of the total exam seats being reserved just for partners.

Event Costs

For Red Hat Partners, the Americas Red Hat Tech Exchange costs $2,300 per person and includes all keynotes, sessions, evening events, and meals (excluding dinner on Oct 15). Travel costs, lodging (estimated at ~$900 for 4 nights on-site at one of the venue hotels), and other ancillary expenses are not included in the cost.

How to Register:

Attendance to the Americas Tech Exchange for Red Hat partners is by invite-only. Registration will open up in early August for you to register for the event and if you want to take an exam.

Lodging Note: Through your registration, your hotel room will be reserved at the venue. At check-in, you'll provide the credit card that will be used to pay for your lodging expenses.
